Data Protection Statement

By ticking the checkbox below and submitting your completed online application form, you are consenting to Arden University using the information provided from time to time, along with any further information about you the University may hold, for the purposes set out in the University's full Data Protection Statement. (<https://arden.ac.uk/privacy-policy>) The information that you provided on your application form will be used for the following purposes:

- To enable your application for entry to be considered and allow our Admissions Advisors, where applicable, to assist you through the application process;
- To enable the University to compile statistics, or to assist other organisations to do so. No statistical information will be published that would identify you personally;
- To enable the University to initiate your student record should you be offered a place at the University.

Storage and sharing of information relating to a health condition, disability or neurodiversity

Throughout your studies at Arden University, we will record information you have provided us about your support needs, any physical or mental health conditions, disabilities and/or neurodiversity.

In order to provide you with support and/or reasonable adjustments, Arden University will:

1. Store the information for use by Wellbeing Services Advisors regarding support needs, details of whether you receive Disabled Students Allowance (DSA), plus any other information relevant to your on-going support.
2. Share the information with relevant university staff, e.g. Academic Tutors, Success Coaches, Academic Skills Tutors, Library Staff, Registry and the Student Affairs Committee.
3. Share course information with DSA if you have applied, in order to support your application.

The basis we rely on to store and process this special category data is;

Under Article 6 - Legal Obligation, Legitimate Interest and Contract; and

Under Article 9(2)(h) – Health or Social Care and Article 9(2)(g) - Substantial Public Interest - 16. Support for individuals with a particular disability or medical condition

If you have any questions, or would like to discuss this, please do not hesitate to contact the Wellbeing Services team by emailing wellbeing@arden.ac.uk (mailto:wellbeing@arden.ac.uk).

Declaration

All applicants should note that the University reserves the right to make without notice changes in regulations, courses, fees etc at any time before or after a candidate's admission. Admission to the University is subject to the requirement that the candidate will comply with the University's registration procedure and will duly observe the Charter, Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations from time to time in force.

By ticking the checkbox below and submitting your completed online application form, you are confirming that the information given in this form is true, complete and accurate and that no information requested or other material information has been omitted. You are also confirming that you have read the Data Protection Statement.

Finally

You will not be able to change your application once you have submitted it. You will receive an auto-acknowledgement email confirming the submission of your application.
